

2008 Chateau Maucoil Chateauneuf du Pape

Rating: 87
Drink: 2010-2013

An attractive, fully mature wine, Maucoil's 2008 Chateauneuf du Pape offers up scents of roasted Provencal herbs, strawberries, black cherries and loamy soil. It is a medium-bodied, tasty, round effort to consume over the next 2-3 years.

No known American importer....

- Robert Parker (October, 2010)

Copyright 2010, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission

2009 Chateau Maucoil Chateauneuf du Pape Tresor des Papes

Rating: 90
Drink: 2010-2012

An outstanding example of white Chateauneuf du Pape, the 2009 Tresor des Papes exhibits excellent notes of honeysuckle, tropical fruits, mangoes and nectarines. Medium-bodied with loads of fruit, crisp acidity and a hint of minerality, this lovely white is ideal for drinking over the next 1-2 years.

No known American importer....

- Robert Parker (October, 2010)

Copyright 2010, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission